DiSHA 2026 conference:Leading the future with AI, innovation, and social impact

Pune, Feb 3 (UNI) The PMI Pune-Deccan India Chapter concluded its flagship annual project management conference, DiSHA 2026, bringing together more than 350 project professionals, industry leaders, mentors, and students from across the region.

Focused on the evolving role of Indian project leaders in an era shaped by artificial intelligence, rising project complexity, and growing social responsibility, the full-day conference served as a high-impact platform for knowledge exchange, collaboration, and professional excellence.

The inaugural sessions underscored the importance of principled and people-centric leadership. Shailendra Goswami, Chairman & Managing Director, Pushkaraj Group, spoke on resilience, governance, and purpose-driven organizations, while Rinoo Rajesh, President & CEO and Conference Chair, PMI Pune-Deccan, highlighted the role of empathy and human judgment alongside AI-driven decision-making. Dr. Parvez Alam M, Region Mentor R11, PMI South Asia, emphasized continuous learning and ethical leadership across the profession.
